

ARS Library Challenge

The Little Writer in the Big Book

In front of our library, you will find a big book,

We need to fill it with your creative stories.

Write and create a short story, and design a suitable cover for it, use your imagination to be creative and innovative.

The best entries will be a display in the Big Book; sharing of love of reading and writing.

Expectations:-

- The story should be written by hand in your best handwriting
- It should be a new story; however you may use characters from other stories
- The story can be in Arabic or English
- The theme of the story can be about kindness or travelling into space (Hazza Al Mansouri)

Parents, you can help your children by giving time and space, modeling materials, and encouragement for your child to enjoy and experiment with writing stories.

Closing Date November 28th
